NAAG -- NAAG Criminal Law Committee Meeting (May 5-6, 2005) (Oxford, Mississippi)	NAAG reimbursed for all travel expenses -- $1,162.16, actually paid for indirectly by the United States.*	May 2005	$ 1,162.16	$4,250.77

* Hawaii, like all other states, pays substantial dues to the National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG). It is expected that part of the dues will be returned to the states in the form of payment of travel expenses. Thus, the payments from NAAG listed above are probably not gifts within the meaning of the appropriate section of the Hawaii Revised Statutes, since they are indirectly paid for with appropriated funds. They are nevertheless listed here.

CERTIFICATION: I hereby certify that the above is a true, correct, and complete statement.
